CANTEEN ANNOUNCEMENT

Mrs. Hetherington will be away a couple of days next week. Thank you to Mrs. Facette for covering the canteen duties. Please make sure to follow the ordering system that your child's teacher has in place as Mrs. Hetherington will not be receiving emails. Please note that there will be an alternate menu while Mrs. Hetherington is away.

GRADES 10-12 FINAL EXAM WEEK AND EXPECTATIONS INFO

Please see the attached Grades 10-12 Final Exam schedule for this week. Students are expected to read through and be familiar with the expectations on them during exam week.

OVEN FOR SALE

We are offering a used coil top stove for a donation to CCS of $75 OBO! It's in good condition overall, just has a slight temperature variation, but still works well. Just needs a little clean and it is good to go! Perfect for anyone in need of an affordable option. If you have a use for it, please contact us at benallick.karlene@ccsmj.ca for more info.

PHYS ED/WILDLIFE MGMT COURSE FEES DUE- GRADES 10, 11, 12

Course Fees are due Feb 3. Please send fees to the office before Feb 3. Phys Ed- $25, Wildlife MGMT- $200. Please watch for an email from Mr. Gregor this week for more info.

2025/2026 CURRENT FAMILY PRESCHOOL & KINDERGARTEN REGISTRATIONS

Any CCS families who have children that would qualify for preschool or Kindergarten next year, please contact the office and an application will be sent home with your children this week. Please note that last year our Preschool had a wait list, therefore it is to your advantage to get your applications in now before we open up to external families.

MISSION TO MERIDA, MEXICO

The Easter break a group of CCS staff and students will be heading back to Merida, Mexico to work at a local camp. They will be doing a few fundraisers here and there over the next few months in order to raise money for this trip. We are doing an ongoing bottle drive until January 31st. Those wanting to donate recycling can deliver them to the CCS Shop and we will process them.
