Join us Thursday, November 28th @ 7:00 pm in the CCS chapel for CCS Talks: tech.life.home.faith as we talk with Professor Joel Houston, Ph.D. from Briercrest Seminary on how we might want to think (and re-think) about how we interact with technology in order to build healthier practices around student and faith formation. There is no cost to attend and this is an open event beyond just CCS parents and families. Please just shoot Adam an email (driscoll.adam@ccsmj.ca) so we can prepare the room!
